

Trump play with fire from Yecheng

U.S. President Trump, ignoring the objections of the Middle East and European allies, will announce the recognition that Jerusalem is the capital of Israel and is ready to relocate the embassy. He is playing the game like this with the aim of provoking the geopolitical risks in the Middle East and possibly inspiring Muslims to attack the United States.

The White House confirmed that Trump has told leaders of Israel, Palestine, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Egypt and other Arab countries to announce his announcement this morning of the local time that Israel will be recognized as the capital of Israel. After six months, the U.S. embassy will be relocated from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem .

The status of Jerusalem has always been a sensitive issue, because Christianity, Judaism and Islam are regarded as the holy city, both Israel and Palestine as the capital. Israel established its nation in 1948 when Jerusalem was divided into two parts, while West Jerusalem belonged to Israel, while East Jerusalem belonged to Jordan. In 1967, Israel launched the Six-Day War, seized East Jerusalem, and declared Jerusalem its capital.

Since 1967, American politicians have always advocated recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel and the transfer of embassies until the 1995 Congress passed the bill, but the incumbent President Clinton failed to implement the bill every six months to sign a waiver order to prevent the embassy from moving to Jerusalem. And declared that the issue of the final status of Yemen should be resolved through Israeli-Palestinian peace talks. The following George Bush and Obama follow this method, Trump violated this cautious stance, the bottom two reasons.
